This breakfast/brunch/tea/midnight snack recipe was a classic from my childhood. While the “dippy egg” part of the title may be self-evident, our dear American readers may not be aware that in some other parts of the English speaking world, bread sliced up into thin strips are referred to as “soldiers.”. All you need to make this basic dish are some eggs, bread and a kettle of boiling water; anything else is a garnish and completely up to you.
