Island of Silence — “Unwanted” Series - Plugged In

That is cruel, cruel punishment and extremely unfair! The Unwanted was a nice read with a pretty satisfying ending; the story was complete on its own but left you wanting more. I was even curious about what was going to happen. But not so with Island of Silence! I was left with so many questions and so many unresolved feelings.

Island of Silence (Unwanteds, #2) by Lisa McMann

Island of Silence was the second book of Lisa McMann's that I've read. (The Unwanteds being the first.) I love both books. I read them back to back, had a hard time putting them down to do other things. When I finished the second book, I felt angry at the author for not having the next installment of the series ready for me.

ISLAND OF SILENCE

There was complete silence from the beginner students who watched in fear, and a momentary collective pause from Alex's row as they peered to see where their opponents ended up, and then a cheer. They ran immediately to their counterparts to release the spells. But Alex wasn't cheering. He ran to the woman he'd hit.
